

Education & Training

Thinking about a career in the Education & Training industry?

The Education & Training Industry covers early child-hood centres, primary schools, secondary schools, trade centres, training organisations and university education. There are some entry roles while the most common roles of teachers require university education.

Some examples of the types of jobs and career opportunities that exist in this industry are:

Primary School Teachers	Secondary School Teachers
Education Aides	School Principals
Tafe Lecturers	Training Officer
University Lecturer	University Tutor
Student Support Officer	Administration Officer
Finance Officer	Kindergarten Teacher
Speech Pathologist	Behavioural Counsellor
IT Support Worker	Childcare Worker

For more information about the possibilities in the Education & Training Industry including personal requirements, examples of tasks performed, education & training requirements and types of work opportunities try visiting:

www.jobguide.deewr.gov.au

www.myfuture.edu.au

www.decd.sa.gov.au

www.graduatecareers.com.au

If you need more information the Career Development Centre has a wide range of resources available including information on local training and labour market opportunities.

Key employment in this sector in our region is in pre school, primary and secondary schools, vocational studies and tertiary education.

Top Five Occupations:

Primary School Teachers
Secondary School Teachers
Education Aides / Support
Vocational Education Teachers
School Principals
University Lecturers & Tutors

Common Attributes for the Education & Training Industry:

Enjoy and have the aptitude for teaching
High level of planning and supervisory skills
Enjoy working with people
Oral and written communication
Sound literacy and numeracy