

Is your resume helping you?

Your resume is your opportunity to make a good impression.

A resume that works is a resume that gets you an interview

Make it easy for the employer to see that your skills and experiences are well matched to the advertised job.

A resume is both a marketing tool and a history of your work and learning.

If you need help to put together an up to date and targeted resume - the team at Limestone Coast Career Services can help you!!

“You need to change your resume every time you apply for a different job”

“It is important to think about what the employer is looking for when writing your resume”
