

Transport

Thinking about a career in the transport industry?

The Transport, Storage and Logistics sector is wide ranging covering a multitude of different jobs supporting every business in Australia.

It is divided into the following seven sectors with many different career paths being available in each;

- Road transportation
- Aviation / Air Transport
- Government
- Storage & Warehousing
- Rail Transport
- Maritime / Sea Transport
- Freight Forwarding

Some examples of the types of jobs and career opportunities that exist in this industry are:

OHS&W Officer	Transport Inspector
MR Truck Driver	HR Truck Driver
Purchasing Officer	Diesel Mechanic
Fleet Manager	Train Driver
Railway Assistant	Air Traffic Controller
Flying Instructor	Pilot
Travel Attendant	Flight Engineer
Ships Master	Marine Engineer
Waterside Worker	Transport Company Manager
Storeperson	Supply & Distribution Manager
Forklift Driver	Purchasing Officer
Freight Sales	Transport Planner
Welder	Freight Scheduler
Crane Operator	Transport Policy Officer

For more information about the possibilities in the Transport Industry including personal requirements, examples of tasks performed, education & training requirements and types of work opportunities try visiting:

www.the-linc.com.au

www.tdsa.org.au

www.tlisc.com.au

www.jobguide.deewr.gov.au

www.myfuture.edu.au

If you need more information the Career Development Centre has a wide range of resources available including information on local training and labour market opportunities.

Key employment in this sector in our region is in road transport, postal and courier pickup and delivery.

Top Five Occupations in the Transport Industry are:

Truck driver
Taxi Driver / Chauffeur
Bus & Tram Driver
Travel Agents / Tour Guide
Storeperson

Common Attributes for the Transport Industry:

Sense of direction
Accuracy
Communication
Time management
Literacy / numeracy
Safety conscious
Planning / Organising
Problem Solving